NAMI Oak Ridge

Proudly Presents

CODE

Correctional Officers

De-escalation Education

Filmmaker Dixie Gamble gained unprecedented access to the state prison system and interviewed inmates, correctional officers and mental health experts. CODE is a training film for correctional officers and an educational tool for those concerned about the institutions which house millions of mentally ill persons in the United States.

CODE is sponsored by NAMI Tennessee in co-operation with the Tennessee Department of Corrections and the Tennessee Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services (TDMHSAS). The movie is funded in part by grants from the TDMHSAS and Janssen Pharmaceuticals.

Interviews with CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS and INMATES sharing their stories of living with MENTAL ILLNESS in PRISON

CODE was produced and directed by Dixie Gamble and includes:

- Pete Early, Author and Journalist
- Dr. Xavier Amador, Author and principal of LEAP Institute
- Ron Honberg, Director for Policy and Legal Affairs for NAMI
- Dr. Ken Duckworth, NAMI Medical Director
- Narration by Steve Lopez, author of a best-selling book that inspired the film The Soloist, which stars Robert Downey Jr. as Lopez.
